Xenia- Xenia brought proposals to the City Council for adding a hydrant at 4th and Pine that would tap into their main line and rely on the water tower that Xenia owns outside of town. This would increase the Fire Departments access to high pressure water. Council would be responsible for $7,195 of the project. Council tabled a decision on the project.

Resident Letters- Clerk sent a letter to residents about recent problems. No additional problems have been reported. Clerk will also send letters to people violating ordinances.

Guests- Brian Reimers came to introduce himself as a candidate for Boone County Supervisor. Erik Kretzinger came to give an update on the projects Boone County and the Supervisors are undertaking.

Purple Wave- Mayor Shreve will work to determine what items the City could list on the site.

July Event- Discussions on rentals was tabled.

Little Free Library- The box is ready for installation. It was donated by Marva Jean Stark and will be placed at or near the new park and Grand Heritage.
